

Grammar: Conjunctions

Words like 'and', 'but' and 'or' are conjunctions.
Conjunctions join parts of a sentence.

Example: I ran downstairs and opened the door.

A Circle the conjunctions.

1. The mice crept into the kitchen and ate all the cheese.
2. Go to bed or you'll be tired in the morning.
3. I like tuna, but Martha prefers chicken.
4. I'm looking forward to Christmas, but it is a long way off.
5. You can eat the potatoes or plant them in the garden.
6. We visited a theme park and went on all the rides.

B Choose the best conjunctions.

and but or

1. We wanted to go to the park, _____ Dad was too busy.
2. The children woke up early _____ opened their presents.
3. You could eat your cake now _____ save it for later.
4. Do you prefer camping _____ sleeping indoors?
5. I went to buy some biscuits, _____ the shop was shut.
6. Patrick sat on the sofa _____ opened his book.

Write a sentence using and, or or but.