

Baker

Bob is a baker. He has a bakery on the Main Street. He gets up very early to bake the bread. He wears a white coat to keep his clothes from getting covered in flour. The first thing that Bob does is make the dough. Then he shapes the dough into bread rolls and French sticks and cobs.

People walking along Main Street smell the bread baking. It smells wonderful and they just have to go in and buy some! ■

CHECK-UP

- 1 What is Bob's job?
- 2 Where is his bakery?
- 3 Why does he start early?
- 4 What does he make first?
- 5 What brings people into his shop?