

Grammar: Singular and plural nouns

Singular means one thing. Plural means more than one thing.

Adding 's' to most words makes a plural.

Examples: boy > boys, dragon > dragons

Add 'es' if the word ends in 's', 'x', 'ch' or 'sh'.

Examples: dress > dresses, bush > bushes

A Fill in the blanks with the correct plurals.

1. One girl. Two _____.

5. One watch. Three _____.

2. One bus. Four _____.

6. One brush. Two _____.

3. One fox. Three _____.

7. One hat. Three _____.

4. One phone. Six _____.

8. One glass. Four _____.

B Make the singular things plural.

1. The squirrel ran up the tree.

2. My aunt got on the bus.

3. The boy put the peach in the box.

4. The girl hid behind the bush.

Find one plural word in the text on page 66.