

The GAA and Croke Park

Talk about what has changed in Croke Park.

Croke Park in the past

Croke Park today

The Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) was founded on 1 November 1884 in Thurles, Co. Tipperary, by Michael Cusack. There are five sports associated with the GAA – Gaelic football, hurling, camogie, rounders and handball. Croke Park is known as the home of the GAA.

Answer the questions.

- 1 When was the GAA founded? _____
- 2 Name three sports associated with the GAA.
 (a) _____ (b) _____ (c) _____
- 3 Croke Park is known as _____

- 4 What is the name of your local club? _____