

Grammar: I or me?

Use 'I' or 'me' to write about yourself.

Use 'I' when you are in charge.

Example: I have a new bike.

Use 'me' when someone else is in charge.

Example: Jack gave me his bike.

Choose 'I' or 'me' to fill in the blanks.

- _____ love playing football.
- Mr Heaney picked _____ for the team.
- Ciaran passed the ball to _____.
- _____ scored the winning goal.
- Mum said she was very proud of _____.
- _____ am going to play again next Saturday.
- My big sister will come and watch _____.
- _____ hope _____ score another goal!

Grammar: A or an?

Use 'a' when the next word begins with a consonant.

Examples: a football, a boot, a happy elephant

Use 'an' when the next word begins with a vowel.

Examples: an elephant, an apple, an unhappy cat

Choose 'a' or 'an' to fill in the blanks.

We had _____ exciting day on Saturday. We got on _____ coach and went all the way to Dublin to see _____ Gaelic football match. Dad and I had _____ enormous flag. Mum had _____ hat in our team's colours! It was _____ incredible match. Our team didn't win, but we still had _____ great time!

Write your own sentence using either I or me.