

Grammar: there/their and to/two

It's easy to muddle up some words!

'There' sounds just like 'their'.

'There' means a place.

Example: The cat sleeps there.

'Their' means 'belonging to them'.

Example: The cats eat their food.

A Choose the correct words to fill in the blanks.

there their

1. The children ate _____ packed lunches.
2. We went to the shop and saw lots of toys _____.
3. My woolly hat is over _____.
4. Dan and Grace flew _____ kite in the park.
5. The girls ran to the cloakroom and left _____ coats _____.

'To' sounds just like 'two'.

'To' helps to say where something is going.

Example: The rocket went to the moon.

'Two' is a number word.

Example: There were two astronauts in the rocket.

B Choose the correct words to fill in the blanks.

to two

1. _____ squirrels ran up the tree.
2. We went _____ Cork at the weekend.
3. I had _____ sausages at teatime.
4. We saw _____ police cars on the way _____ Dublin.

C Correct the sentences.

Correct the spellings of there/their and to/two below.

1. I looked in the biscuit tin but no biscuits were their.
2. We had a long walk two school.
3. Tomek and Paul met there friends at the park.

Write one sentence using there and one using their.