The Rainbow

People say that there is always a leprechaun, with a pot of gold, at the end of a rainbow. The end of the rainbow was in Amy's back garden! She could not believe her luck!

Amy jumped on the leprechaun before he could get away.

'Let me go,' he shouted crossly.

'Give me the pot of gold before I let you go!' said Amy.

The leprechaun gave Amy the pot and she let him go. But when she opened the pot, it was full of stones.

'I tricked you!' said the leprechaun. 'You should have looked inside the pot before you let me go!' Amy will know better the next time. ■

CHECK-UP

1. What is always at the end of a rainbow?
2. Where did the rainbow end?
3. What did the leprechaun give to Amy?
4. What was inside the pot?
5. What should she have done before she let the leprechaun go free?