Postcard From Paris

Bonjour Kate,

That's how you say 'Hello' in French! I'm having a great holiday in Paris. Yesterday I climbed to the top of the Eiffel Tower. I could see all of Paris, (well almost!). Then we went to a restaurant and Daddy ate snails. Ugh! I had a pancake with egg and bacon on it. It was yummy. This morning we went to see the Mona Lisa. It was very small. I still can't tell if she is smiling or frowning. Everyone drives on the other side of the road here, so you have to be extra careful crossing the road.

See you next week. Wish you were here.

Amy XXX

Ms Kate Smithers

786 New Street

Cork City

Ireland

CHECK-UP

1. Who was the card sent to?
2. What is the French for 'Hello'?
3. What tower did Amy climb?
4. What did Amy eat in the restaurant?
5. What did she find strange about the Mona Lisa?