Good morning everyone. I hope you had a nice weekend. Today is a special day in our country and some people can start back at work.

But for you and me we have to stay at home for another while to make sure we defeat this virus! Remember to say the Hail Mary for all the nurses and doctors.

Quiet Work

Writing: Let's write our news today. You are getting really good at writing. Try to add a sentence of your own for me to read.

Remember to space out your words!

Our News

Today is _____.

It is a _____ day.

Yesterday I went for a _____.

I saw _____.

Mathemagic: Juniors - p81. Colour in the fruit and draw the line to make a set. Get a piece of paper and make some sets of 5 yourself on it. You can use colours, spoons, coins or even cups!! Remember to draw the set around the 5 items and write the number!

Seniors: p99. If you don't have lollipop sticks, you can use tea spoons or playing cards or pencils (of the same length!). Use your stick to measure lots of things around you. eg. Placemats, books, drawers, TV, chairs, even tea-towels! Make sure you guess first! Make a little grid to record your work. Remember, the length of anything is the longest side!!

Measuring Exercise- How many sticks?

Busy Work

Today I'd like you to make a sensory tray!! You will need a baking tray or a biscuit tin lid or a box with the sides cut down...

1. Get a sheet of paper and decorate it with all your colours. You can draw straight lines or curved lined or circles... As long as you colour the whole sheet!
 2. Place the coloured sheet into the lid or tray.
 3. Spread sugar or flour or rice or shaving foam all over the tray.
 4. Use your finger to make numbers, letter or pictures.
- Try to write a word like 'hello' or 'hi' or your name and send it to me on Seesaw!
