

Editing is making changes to your writing to:

- Make it clearer
- Add missing details

A Spot the differences.

Ella wrote a first draft of some instructions and then edited them. Underline the changes she made in her second draft.

First draft

Make a pop-up card

1. Fold your card.
2. Cut a picture out of a card.
3. Fold the white strip over and over.
4. Stick the white strip to your cut-out picture and your card.
5. Draw a picture on your card.

Second draft

Make a pop-up card

You will need:

A4 coloured card, old birthday cards, scissors, thin white strip of card, coloured pens, sticky-tape, glue.

What to do

1. Fold your A4 card in half.
2. Cut a picture out of an old birthday card.
3. Fold the white strip one way and then the other. Repeat until it is like a spring.
4. Stick one end of the white strip to the back of your cut-out picture. Stick the other end inside your card.
5. Draw a picture on the front of your finished card.
