

Grammar: Pronouns

A pronoun is a small word that can be used instead of a noun (naming word).

Some pronouns that replace people or things are I, he, she, it, we, they, you.

Example: Róisín (noun) went to a party. She (pronoun) went to a party.

A Circle the pronouns in the sentences.

1. We enjoyed flying in the rocket.
2. She flew the spacecraft very well.
3. They escaped from the enemy.
4. He crashed the spaceship into a planet.
5. I cooked a stew for dinner.
6. You didn't see me in the playground yesterday.

B Choose the best pronouns to complete the sentences.

I He She It We They

1. _____ forgot his coat again.
2. _____ read my favourite book last night.
3. _____ clapped when their friend won the trophy.
4. _____ helped her dad make dinner.
5. _____ was a cold, rainy day yesterday.
6. _____ have been friends for two years.

Write a sentence using the pronoun they.